Sri Lanka is beautiful, boasting an abundance of exotic, natural riches. Ancient Buddhist traditions teaching compassion for all living creatures, have paved the way for the country's long history of conservation. The island abounds with magnificent scenery and historic fortresses, temples and monasteries.

Join Saman Veediyabandara, one of Sri Lanka's leading birding/naturalist guides and Tom Grove, Managing Director from Coates Wildlife Tours, as they discover the natural history and fascinating culture and history of the island.

Sri Lanka's wildlife is varied, including 86 mammal species, 16 of which are endemic to the island. It's home to several wild elephant herds, leopards, sloth bears, mouse deer and numerous monkey species. The birdlife and butterflies are colourful and abundant. Enjoy some of Sri Lanka's best primate viewing among the ancient ruins of Polonnaruwa, where toque macaques, leaf monkeys and grey langurs are at close range. We will search for the elusive leopard in Yala National Park, home to the world's largest concentration of this exquisite cat and Asiatic buffalo, jackal, and wild boar. You will spend a day whale watching off the coast of Mirissa in search of Blue and Sperm Whales and pods of dolphins.

For those interested in botany, Sri Lanka is a land of plenty. The island features diverse habitats, including wet zone tropical forests and shrublands. Vegetation varies from almost treeless pantanas (plains) to dark rhododendron forests in the hills.

Day 2, 4 March Sigiriya - Polonnaruwa - Sigiriya Area

This morning, we'll visit Polonnaruwa to see ancient ruins. The city was built in the 11th century during an Indian invasion when Polonnaruwa became the next seat of rule. In its day, the city was fortified with three concentric walls; within these walls were beautiful parks and four carved rock Buddha statues. The ruins are now listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Lunch is at a local Restaurant in Polonnaruwa.

After lunch, we will take a 3-hour jeep safari ride into Minneriya National Park. The park provides critical habitat for Sri Lanka's two endemic monkeys, the purple-faced langur and the toque macaque. Large herbivorous mammals such as Asian Elephants, Sri Lankan sambar deer and Sri Lankan axis deer frequent the park. Rare and endangered species, such as the Sri Lankan leopard and Sri Lankan sloth bear, inhabit Minneriya.

The temple ceilings are painted with intricate patterns of religious images following the contours of the rock, including many images of the Lord Buddha.
